

Distribution of anticipated units between 2021-2041

A total of 45,000 units are anticipated by 2041. The growth scenario also includes 1,833 secondary suites, which are included in the "Rest" category in the pie chart. Secondary suites are not included on the map as they are not associated with a specific growth strategy district and are expected to happen across the city.

