

If finished grade varies around the base of the building, choose the biggest differential between finished grade and the corresponding height at that spot